Corporate Synergies has won the “Best Place to Work” in the Philadelphia Area –
Fifth Year in a Row – Inducted into the “Hall of Fame”

MT. LAUREL, NJ. – October 20, 2008 – Corporate Synergies, a full-service healthcare benefit solutions provider, today announced that the Company has been inducted into the Hall of Fame by winning the 2008 “Best Places to Work” by the Philadelphia Business Journal. This is the fifth straight year that Corporate Synergies has ranked as one of the “Best Places to Work” in the Philadelphia area. The annual award is given by the Philadelphia Business Journal and recognizes local companies dedicated to being an employer of choice. This year, three companies received top scores in their size category for consecutive years in a row: Corporate Synergies Group, Virtua Health and Microsoft Corp.

In honor of their record, the Philadelphia Business Journal has inducted them into a special new “Hall of Fame” category, marking them as the best of the best places to work. This prestigious award is based on an employee survey on key areas such as communication within the company, work environment, compensation and benefits, promotions, recognition and corporate social responsibility. The Philadelphia Business Journal’s research partner, Wichita, Kansas-based Quantum Market Research, tabulated the results of thousands of online surveys completed by employees to establish the rank order.

“Corporate Synergies’ competitive advantage is its people, and to continually serve and exceed the evolving needs of our clients is dependant on having top talent in place,” said Eileen Fogarty, Senior Vice President, Human Resources of Corporate Synergies. “Being a “best of the best places to work” in Philadelphia Business Journal’s for a fifth consecutive year is an exceptional accomplishment. I believe that the right work environment delivers a powerful business advantage for us in the marketplace by helping us attract and retain top talent in a very competitive market.”

The awards program was launched in July by the Philadelphia Business Journal through direct mailings, email and fax announcements, phone calls and advertisements in the paper. The 2008 program is sponsored by CareerBuilder.com, Comcast-Spectacor, the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission, Kreisler Miller, Philadelphia SHRM, and SB 1 Federal Credit Union.

“The best places to work are companies that recognize employees as their best asset, instrumental in maintaining the quality and reputation for services and products,” said Bernard Dagenais, Philadelphia Business Journal editor.
